for May [illegible]

[illegible]

There will be [illegible] on [illegible] of the [illegible] Board to morrow [illegible] of the funeral of W M [illegible] late member of the Board

There was a heavy frost last night seriously damaging the vineyards in the vicinity of San Jose It cut down the bean and potato vines in the vicinity of the Mission It was the heaviest frost we have had for a year

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company will increase the number of monthly trips monthly between this port and Panama from two to three The change will be announced in a few days

There was the slightest possible shock of an earthquake to day

The Comstock had full swing in the Board to day and all the other stocks were slaughtered — everybody selling out in them to go in on the Comstock in the hope of making big money on the rise and getting out again in a few days The fever is running high

Old Times

THE FIRST STEAMER THAT DESCENDED THE MISSISSIPPI

The Pennsylvania was the first steamer that ever descended the Mississippi She came down from Pittsburgh in 1813 At that time this whole valley, from Memphis to Louisville, had been recently convulsed by successive earthquakes When the thunderous Pennsylvania descending the Ohio, drew near Shawneetown on a dark tempestuous night and the people of the village heard the fearful thunder of the Pennsylvania s voice, they thought it the living genius of the earthquake Led by John R Scully who was gathered to his fathers years ago the people of the village went down to the river shore and on their knees in abject terror prayed for escape

At length the steamer with its glaring eyes redder than that of Polyphemus, and hideous noises came in sight Fires beneath the boilers illuminated the scene with a ghastly glare the boat breathed heavily as the embodiment of an earthquake might have done the good people of Shawneetown rose up, and in helpless fright and utter dismay fled away to the hills Shawneetown has never recovered from the shock of that fearful night Its growth was stunted and there it stands to day a hunchbacked little half grown, ancient village the victim of stupendous terror inspired by the first steamer that ever descended the Ohio and Mississippi

FIRST STEAMERS IN WESTERN WATERS

In 1823 Captain Shreve commanded the good steamer General Washington the fleetest boat that ever traversed the waters of the West He made in the year designated the shortest time ever known between New Orleans and Louisville—twenty five days! When at Louisville he anchored his steamer in the midst of the river and fired a gun for each day consumed in the wonderful voyage The whole population of Louisville was gathered on the river shore to behold the marvel of speed—the glorious General Washington—and Shreve was feted and honored and crowned with roses, and borne by the huzzaing multitude through the streets of Louisville Shreve dressed as an American Admiral made an eloquent speech to the people of Louisville and while whisky flowed and toasts were drunk Shreve who gave paternity to Shreveport declared that the time of the General Washington could never be equaled

Curiously enough it was eclipsed before the season closed and the Tecumseh in 1828, made the same trip in eight days and seventeen hours and not until 1833 was this time beaten The Shepherdess was then crowned victrix beating the Tecumseh s time seven hours She was commanded by Captain Milton Dalley The Ben lier in 1828 made a desperate effort to defeat the Tecumseh but failed ignominiously In those days when on a race all the passengers officers and crew were employed at stated intervals in woodchopping along the shore There were no wood or coal yards When a steamer encountered an attractive pile of driftwood the people on board covered it like birds of prey and depositing it on the boat soon converted it into firewood

English Sentiment on the Alabama Claims

London dispatches of April 4th contain the following

Disraeli in a speech at Manchester last night referring to the American difficulties growing out of the Alabama claims question underrated the course of the Gladstone Ministry and admitting that it was impossible for America to recede from her position in regard to the question of the Alabama claims, the inconsistency would be followed by ultimate acknowledgment of the principle of the claims the result whereof must be fraught with the utmost danger to England

Earl Derby and other prominent gentlemen followed in similar speeches

James Stansfeld Radical member of the Parliament in an address to his constituency last night touched significantly upon the Alabama treaty and said the treaty seemed to be in jeopardy If it failed the fault would rest with the American Government England had done her best to settle these difficulties and set a good example to the world

The Globe to day calls attention to a rumor of an extraordinary character which has obtained currency in London that the case of the American Government before the Geneva Tribunal estimates the losses to citizens of the United States by capture and destruction of American ships and cargoes by Confederate cruisers built or fitted out in English waters at $14 000 000 and the expenses of the United States Government in pursuing said privateers at $200 000 000 The Globe comments with some severity on this statement and expresses the hope that Gladstone will be speedily called upon in Parliament for an explanation as to its truth or falsity

The French Arms Inquiry

A Washington dispatch of the 4th inst gives the following It affords further proof how little there is in the [illegible]

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

EASTERN STATES

Grant Mass Meetings

NEW YORK April 11 —A mass meeting of the friends of President Grant was held at the Brooklyn Academy of Music last night—house filled S D North presided Letters were read from S B Chittenden and Governor Jewell of Connecticut favoring the renomination of Grant and Colfax Resolutions eulogizing the Administration and urging the renomination of Grant and Colfax were adopted with hearty applause Henry Ward Beecher was the principal speaker He eulogized the Administration of Grant as honest and successful and said that Grant had fulfilled all the promises he made in his letter of acceptance in 1868 Though a military man Grant was the first President to treat the Indians with humanity There were matters yet to be reformed, but he considered the Administration, as a whole a noble success and believed the old Republican organization destined to be led to large victories in the future He referred to the Cincinnati Convention, and said if it should force the Philadelphia Convention to take a purer and more advanced platform, he should be glad, but he could not favor such action as will so divide the Republicans that the Democrats shall get into power He expressed his personal respect and admiration for Senators Sumner Schurz and Trumbull and his belief in their honesty, but said they could not make a new party

New York News

NEW YORK, April 11 —The World calls for the immediate impeachment of Judges Cardoza and Bernard, and hopes the Legislature will not go through the process of removing them To put them upon trial is the most practical way of disposing of their cases

WASHINGTON CITY

Dr. Howard's Case.

WASHINGTON April 11 —The Committee on Foreign Affairs to day agreed to report to the House a resolution demanding the unconditional release of Dr Howard and the restoration of his property which has been confiscated by the Spanish Government

MEXICO

NEW YORK, April 11 —A special from Matamoras says that telegraphic communication with Reynosa is established, showing that the revolutionists are not approaching from that quarter.

General Palico has issued a proclamation declaring Reynosa in a state of siege, and prohibiting vessels from ascending or descending the Rio Grande at any point within twelve miles of the city, unless by special permit General M E Cook protested against this action of Palico, and he therefore did not attempt to enforce the order against American citizens or vessels protected by the American flag.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Tichborne Case.

LONDON April 11 —The claimant of the Tichborne estates appeared in the Criminal Court yesterday and pleaded not guilty to the indictment against him A writ of certiorari was issued, removing the case to the Court of the Queen's Bench where the prisoner will be tried in June In the meantime the prisoner will be recommitted to Newgate.

French Affairs.

LONDON, April 11.—A dispatch to the Times says Thiers has abolished the passport system Hereafter travelers on the frontier will have no tax levied, as heretofore nor will they be subject to the scrutiny of civil officers while in the country

UTAH

SALT LAKE April 11 —The United States Assessor to day received instructions from Washington to proceed against the Zion Co-operative Mercantile Institution for the violation of revenue laws, regarding the issue of their own paper as fractional currency without stamps It is believed that an immense amount of those shinplasters are in circulation

Developments in the mines of Little Cottonwood Butterfield and other districts continue A large number of capitalists and experts from all parts are waiting until the storms abate to inspect the mines

The important Mormon ceremony of setting apart missionaries at the late conference to labor in foreign countries took place yesterday These are blessed granted immunity from all dangers and misfortunes pronounced for their faithful services increased wealth numerous posterity and are made glorious generally Some called on are said to be very reluctant and would much rather stay and take their chances with the Gentile heathen outside of the church Business men regard it as a species of banishment to promote the interests of the church officials

LATER —The Church organ this morning bitterly denounced Judge McKean thinking he is the author of the Voorhees bill in Congress in aid of the enforcement of the laws in Utah when the fact is McKean had no hand in drawing the bill Letters to day say there is a strong probability that the bill will pass if admission fail The bill will settle all the questions between the Church authorities and the Government Brigham Young is said to be much perplexed by increased and urgent demands upon his people for money due for labor, supplies, &c , on public works and private contracts

FURTHER EVIDENCE OF SKILL.

A Pea Successfully Extracted from the Ear, after having been imbedded against the Drum of the Ear for Eight Months.

PORTLAND April 6, 1872.

To the Public

I hereby certify to the skill of Dr Aborn in the treatment of my son In August last he got a large pea into his ear Physicians were applied to without success. The pea soon caused inflammation and a fungus growth spread over the pea and filled up the entire ear, and of late a bloody discharge oozed from the ear and I became greatly alarmed about his perilous condition After satisfying myself that Dr Aborn was a skillful surgeon in all such cases I applied to him, on Wednesday last, with my son and placed him under his care He destroyed the fungus growth so as to make a passage back to the pea and on the fourth day he succeeded in removing all the fungus growth and disease of the ear Then by the aid of his scientific instruments we could plainly see the pea embedded against the drum of the ear The pea was removed the same evening without pain The hearing in that ear which was destroyed, is now by his treatment restored so that he can hear a watch tick Only for the timely aid of the skill of Dr Aborn I feel satisfied that my son would have lost his life It was through the card of Capt Pease that I applied to Dr Aborn; so I give this card to the public with the view that it may be the means of benefiting some one.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 12, 1872.

Very Tame

In striking contrast with the Democratic platform of two years ago is the platform adopted on Wednesday at the Dalles. Two years ago the utterances of the party in Convention were [illegible] defiant. The Democracy that found expression then was the Bourbon [illegible]. It [illegible] for repudiation, [illegible] demanded the abrogation of the constitutional amendments and declared its purpose to fight for the reversal of all the settlements of the war. [illegible] contrast all this with the subdued tone of the platform just adopted. It would indicate that the party is cowed and disgusted, hopeless of success in the great Presidential contest, and caring little under these circumstances for any small local triumph. So tame a platform was never adopted by any former Democratic Convention.

In the first resolution we have something about strict construction of the Constitution and the preservation of individual rights, but this is said in so tame and humdrum a style that it is clear the authors of the resolution felt that there was no need of saying it. We are told that the Democracy demand "trial by jury, and freedom from unreasonable searches and seizures." Who is denied the right of trial by jury, and where do unreasonable searches and seizures prevail?

Again, it is declared that the people should be protected against the exactions of oppressive monopolies. But the authors of the platform did not condescend to specify any exactions, or to point out any monopolies that are oppressing the people. Nor did they mention any method whereby such exactions, in case they should ever be found to exist, could be checked and thereafter prevented.

Mention is made of the locks at the Falls of the Wallamet, and legislation is demanded for a like improvement at the Cascades of the Columbia. Such an improvement at the Cascades is very desirable; but are the people to understand that the Democracy propose another immense steal from the school fund to accomplish it?

Another resolution declares that the money arising from the sale of swamp lands should be devoted to internal improvements and common schools. Here is wonderful solicitude for the common schools on the part of those who have just been robbing them. As for the swamp lands, the proceeds arising from their sale will not be due for ten years, and as no competition is allowed in buying them they will yield nothing worth mentioning after all the "Boards" are paid.

This is all there is in the platform that is worth mentioning.

Grover's Operations.

It was apparent to every one who witnessed the manner in which the delegates to the Dalles Convention who stopped over at Portland on Monday, were handled, that Burnett, the Grover candidate for Congress, would receive the nomination. His Excellency has supreme control of his party. He has obtained this control chiefly by the use of the large patronage and other resources which the Legislature at the last session placed in his hands. He has subsidized all the working force of the party, and with their aid has things all his own way. By these methods he is "running" the Democratic Conventions in all the counties and is securing in all cases the nomination of "Grover men" for the Legislature. He and his agents have "set up" the nominations in Polk, Wasco, Clackamas and Benton, and expect to set up the remainder, down to the foot of the list. Grover has so far subsidized his party with the spoils of the State as to rule out all competitors for the seat in the United States Senate. Up to this time he has met with no check. But there is deep discontent in his party, the result of which the future may make plain.

We read in the Democratic organ that certain persons were appointed by the Convention at the Dalles "as delegates to the National Convention." To what National Convention? Are these delegates going to Cincinnati to participate with Greeley, Gratz Brown and Gov. Warmouth? That is the only National Convention of which the country has any knowledge, save the one to be held at Philadelphia. If these delegates are going to Cincinnati, it is high time they were starting. They barely have time to get there. The forlorn condition of the Democracy is well illustrated by the fact that no one can yet tell whether the party will have a regular National Convention or not; or, whether, in case such Convention be held, it will nominate a Democrat or Republican for President. If the Delegates appointed at the Dalles wish to make sure of finding a Convention, they would do well to start on their travels soon. The search may be long and painful.

The action of political parties in Washington Territory has been delayed this spring in consequence of a supposition that Congress had postponed the election till November. Hence both parties are late in getting into the field. It is now, however, conceded that the time for holding the election has not been postponed, and the Governor of the Territory has issued his proclamation for the regular election in June.

One of the reports of the proceedings of the Dalles Convention states that O. S. Savage of Wasco, "was honored by being appointed 'Sergeant-at-Arms.'" Mr. Savage, it is understood, wanted to be re-nominated for Legislature in his county, but as he was not sound on Grover and was supposed to favor Nesmith, he could not be honored in this way.

Among the committees now most needed is an honest committee to investigate the Radical committees of investigation.—Herald.

Since the Herald was so unfortunate as to say the other day that committees of investigation were never known until Grant became President, and that there never was any need of them in Democratic times, it would do well to let this topic alone.

Cable dispatches to the Chicago Tribune say that the Emperor of Germany has been reading the "French Arms" debate, and is surprised at the notes made about so small a matter. Bismarck joins the Emperor in expressions of a similar feeling, and his organs throughout the Empire "pooh-pooh" the whole affair.

The Republicans of California will hold a State Convention at Sacramento on the 25th inst. for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the National Convention at Philadelphia. There will probably be no opposition to Grant.

C. S. Woodworth is a delegate from Chemeketa Lodge at Salem to the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F.

A Commercial Dictionary vs Oregon's Constitution.

Now again comes the Herald, persisting in its assertion that in spite of Constitution, laws and rights acquired under them, the Legislature of this State can fix rates of transportation on railroads, and insisting that this is an "issue" of the present political campaign. It is not probable that there is any cure for [illegible] this, so we may expect that the Herald will keep on in this strain till election day, when the matter will be dropped, never to be heard of afterwards. To show that rates of transportation on our railroads can be regulated by law McCulloch's Commercial Dictionary is quoted, as saying, that,

> A carrier is always, unless there be an express agreement to the contrary, entitled to a reward for his care and trouble. In some cases his reward is regulated by the legislature, and in others by a special stipulation between the parties; but though there will be no legislative provision or express agreement, he cannot claim more than a reasonable compensation.

"Such," says the Herald, "are the legal principles which must govern railroads." McCulloch's Dictionary, we are told, is a standard authority." We have no doubt it is a very fine book, but we have yet to learn that as an "authority" with the people and courts of Oregon it is superior to the Constitution of their State. Excellent a book as it doubtless is, it will probably be forced to give way in this State to the Constitution which the people have adopted, and to the laws framed in accordance with it.

And now since this matter of transportation is so persistently dragged into politics in defiance of common sense, we want to know where the railroad is enforcing unreasonable rates. If our neighbor will persist in this matter, let him talk to the point. Let us know where this oppression and extortion exist, so that it may be seen where a remedy is wanted. As a matter of fact, rates of transportation are no higher here than on railroads terminating at Chicago. So it will be seen that in every point of view the Herald's outcry is empty and senseless clamor.

Wounded Patriotism.

It is again asserted by the "organ" that the sale of arms about which so much noise has been made of late was a violation of public law, giving Germany good ground to prefer a claim against us precisely similar to our claim against Great Britain in the Alabama case. It says:

> If Prussia forbears to assert her claim we shall be both fortunate and thankful; but that forbearance can in no way excuse our Government for its illegal course. And what kind of aspect do we occupy before the civilized world, while claiming damages of England for a violation of public law, when we stand convicted of violating the same law in a more recent case? This position is certainly a humiliating one to our national pride.

Doubtless those who at all times for the last twelve years have done their worst against their own country are in a position to feel very keenly a "humiliation of our national pride." And those among us who have made haste to proclaim that Germany has grave cause of complaint against us and should have heavy damages, though Germany herself has discovered no cause for complaint and has not only made no demand for damages but says there is no ground for any, feel intense solicitude for the welfare of their country. This, certainly, is disinterested patriotism! It is painful to see the Democratic organ so overwhelmed with shame. It says further:

> But what makes it all the more humiliating is the fact that it now stands proved that our officials, in the Grant administration, went into the sale of arms and munitions to the French as a private speculation.

This is mere wanton calumny. It is said without a shadow of testimony to support it. There has been no proof of the sort, nor anything like it. We do not challenge the organ to produce the proof, because it would be futile to do so. This must pass simply as another of the Herald's fabrications.

OREGON.

There was a severe frost at Salem on last Tuesday night.

Wells, Fargo & Co. have established a new express office at Harrisburg.

The laying of the corner stone of the Academy of the Sacred Heart at Salem has been postponed until the 23d of the present month.

Ben Simpson informs the Statesman that his schooner, the Elnorah, is now on the ways, being repaired under direction of the company insuring her, and that she will probably be ready to sail for San Francisco in a week.

The Oregon Statesman says: The preliminary survey of the Corvallis and Yaquina Bay railroad route will be commenced in a few days by a corps of engineers under the direction of Mr. George Mercer, of Corvallis. It begins to look as if something is to be done in this important enterprise, and we heartily rejoice at the fact. It is a movement in which not only the Yaquina Bay country, but a large part of the Willamette valley, have a vital interest.

We take the following from the P. C. Advocate: The last quarterly report of the Pastor of the Taylor street M. E. Church, in this city, shows the following facts: Number of classes in this Charge, 9; number of members in all classes, 270; aggregate attendance in all the classes for the quarter, 2,334; average attendance for each week in all classes, 196 6-10; average attendance for each week in each of the classes, 19 8-9; whole number of attendance required to make 100 per cent of attendance, 3,510; Actual per cent. of attendance for the quarter, 66⅔.

The following is the list of members of the Democratic State Central Committee: I. D. Haines, of Baker county; J. C. Avery, of Benton; W. L. White, of Clackamas; A. Van Dusen, of Clatsop; W. H. Musgrove, of Columbia; W. H. Jackson, of Coos; William Tichnor, of Curry; Aaron Rose, of Douglas; J. W. Baldwin, of Grant; Benj. Hayward, of Jackson; A. L. Waldo, of Josephine; J. J. Walton, of Lane; N. H. Cranor, of Linn; G. W. Gray, of Marion, J. A. Chapman, of Multnomah; H. N. V. Holmes, of Polk; W. H. Fausett, of Tillamook; H. C. Paige, of Umatilla; O. C. Craig, of Union; Vic. Trevitt, of Wasco; and J. H. Upton, of Yamhill. Dr. J. A. Chapman, of Portland, is Chairman.

When the nominations were being made at the Dalles for Presidential Electors, the name of Ben Hayden was proposed. Ben felt a little bit sore over the nomination for Congress, and got up and said that he had been proposed for that position in 1860, and again in 1864, and had made the canvass of the State when there was no hope, and had simply been sacrificed for the good of the party; that he had done as much, and more, work for the Democratic party than any man in it; that now, when there were hopes that the State would go Democratic, he would withdraw in favor of some younger man, as he was one of the old fogies who always worked and never got any pay.

Guest—"How comes this dead fly in my soup?" Waiter—"In fact, sir, I have no positive idea how the poor thing came to its death. Perhaps it had not taken any food for a long time, dashed upon the soup, ate too much of it, and contracted an inflammation of the stomach that brought on death. The fly must have had a weak constitution, for when I served the soup it was dancing merrily on the surface. Perhaps—and the idea presents itself only at this moment—it endeavored to swallow too large a piece of vegetable, this last remaining in his throat, caused a choking in the windpipe. This is the only reason I could give for the death of this insect."

"The strongest propensity in woman's nature," says a careful student of the sex, "is to want to know what is going on, and the next is to boss the job."

LETTER FROM THE DALLES.

THE DALLES, April 10, 1872.

There was a high old time among the Democratic delegates last night here. About 8 o'clock the band commenced playing in front of the hotel and the crowd gathered in the bar-room, numbering about 50, when Gov. Grover mounted a table and commenced to say his little piece. He adored the dear people. He loved them and their interests. He had served them and he would serve them again. He had been the means of letting all State lands so that his pets could make a good thing out of them by swindling and extortionate fees. Grover, it might be well to say, did not give this last reason for so doing. He had been very much alarmed for fear that the State lands would run off, and that the swamp lands would be all washed away, therefore he had done his friends a good thing by securing them. He went on at considerable length to defend himself and his administration, but his apology was very lame and his speech very flat, and he sat down amid profound silence, except the clatter of glasses at the adjoining bar, which last was kept up very lively during the entire performance. In fact the bar-keeper received more attention than the speakers.

Nesmith was the next called out. After being assisted on to the table he commenced his harangue. He said he was an humble farmer who had come up here to this, the Thermopylæ of the State, to help nominate a Congressman. That was all the business he had, but while he was saying that he would say some other things. He endorsed all that Governor Grover had said; thought Grover had made a splendid Governor, and that he did not see how the people of Oregon could get along without his services in that position. He thought the people could not spare the Governor now until his term was out. He said that he was a candidate for the United States Senate, and was going to make the fight for that position, though he said both ends of the State were against him; that if the damned Abolitionists, or subsidized Democrats, either, had anything to say about him that they had not said, he wanted them to say it now. But he would give the Democrats warning that he was not going to buy his way to the Senate this time, and, said he, with emphasis, "I have not got any money to do it with, and, by God, if I had, I would not pay a damned cent of it to buy votes." This will serve as a specimen of his profanity. His blackguardism was too foul to print. It was the foulest, dirtiest thing I ever heard for a speech. His friends apologize for it by saying he was drunk, which the same it was plain to behold. But his speech was well suited to his crowd, and was vociferously applauded.

Helm was called on and mounted the table. The Dalles people have got the idea that he was the individual who defeated a wagon road from Portland to this place, at the last Legislature, and consequently they are not very partial to him. He evidently felt that he was under a cloud, and essayed to apologize and explain away, but the crowd could not see it, and he very soon subsided.

Loud calls were then made for Savage, who had been that afternoon defeated for the nomination for State Senator, and for every other county office on the list down to Assessor, but he evidently did not feel like preaching his own funeral sermon, so he did not respond readily, when some one called for Burnett. John was there, and he didn't need a second call. He mounted the table without help, and at them he went. His long pent-up feelings needed a vent and he vented them for nearly an hour to an audience of about forty persons. He waded into Ben Holladay very savagely, called him a monopolist, king of monopolists, leader of monopolists, and so on. He was afraid of Ben Holladay. He was afraid that Holladay would buy him which would be a bad thing for Ben. Then he went after the railroads. Thought they ought to be controlled by the Legislature, and gave it as his opinion, as a lawyer, that the Legislature had a right to control fares on the railroad, if they had a right to go through his farm. He did not state that for every right of way the railroad had to pay the full value of the land and all damages; it would have spoiled his argument. He was down on Passivism. He thought that the party should stand to the eternal principles; said that the Southern people were much abused; that they had been punished for doing what they thought was right, and that was tyranny. Washington and Hancock and the noble men of the Revolution were rebels. Why should they be lauded and praised while the Southerners were punished? He then wanted to tax the bonds. He thought that a bond, if taxed, would sell for just as much in Europe as it would without being taxed, while it would yield immense revenue to the States. Said that States had a constitutional right to tax United States bonds, and that if the Supreme Court decided otherwise, he would appeal from the Supreme Court to the people. He waded into the old national bank, nominated Andrew Jackson for President, and made a lengthy speech in which no issue of the past five years was alluded to, unless you call pitching into Ben Holladay one of the issues of the present day, while those of thirty years ago were thoroughly discussed. As a harangue it was a success, as a speech, it was a failure; as a specimen of logic or reason—well, it had neither. But it took among the Democrats and was the great cause of his being nominated.

Ben Hayden was called for but declined to make a speech.

Every one of the speakers except Grover (and he said nothing about it) took the old secession view of State rights, declared the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments were not ratified, and that they were a fraud and a sham; and these sentiments were loudly applauded whenever alluded to.

The Democratic Platform.

We have already published the principal proceedings of the Dalles Convention, a synopsis of the resolutions, and the list of candidates. Following are the resolutions in full:

Resolved, 1. That we, the Democratic party of the State of Oregon, are pledged to a strict construction of the Constitution, the restoration and preservation of the rights of the States to regulate their internal affairs, and especially the elective franchise, free from the control or interference of the General Government, the protection of individual rights in accordance with the fundamental laws of the land, including the rights to the writ of habeas corpus, trial by jury, and freedom from unreasonable searches and seizures.

2. That we are opposed to every species of corruption in all departments of the Municipal, State and National Governments.

3. That our motto is, no privileged classes and no privileged capital.

4. That we are in favor of a tariff to raise money only for the necessary expenses of the Federal Government, and not for the benefit of monopolists.

5. That we view with alarm the flagrant and open violations of the Constitution by the party now controlling the General Government, in the passage and enforcement of the Reconstruction and Ku Klux laws, and the corruption and fraud which characterizes their administration of every department of the Government, and we pledge ourselves to use all lawful and peaceable means to secure a speedy correction of these outrages and usurpations.

6. That the freedom, welfare and rights of the people are superior to the interests of incorporations, and should be protected against the exactions of oppressive monopolists.

7. That we favor the appropriation of the fund arising from the sale of the swamp lands to purposes of internal improvements and the aid of common schools.

8. That the construction of locks at the Falls of the Wallamet is a judicious and effective safeguard of the commerce of the Wallamet valley, and we favor legislation to the end that the commerce of the Columbia river may be in like manner benefited and protected.

9. That the thanks of the people of Oregon are due our present State administration for its successful efforts in securing to the State the grants of land which otherwise would have fallen into the hands of grasping corporations.

"You have lost your baby, I hear," said one lady to another. "Yes, poor little thing; it was only five months old. We did all we could for it. We had four doctors, blistered its head and feet, put mustard poultices all over it, gave it nine calomel powders, leeched its temples, had it bled, gave it all kinds of medicines, and yet after a week's illness it died!"

THIRD ANNUAL COURSE OF LECTURES

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE

Young Men's Christian Association,

AT THE

Lecturers:

SYL. C. SIMPSON, Esq., Salem, April 16.

THE SIXTH AND LAST LECTURE OF THE COURSE will be delivered on

Tuesday Evening, April 16th, 1872,

At 8 o'clock, by

SYL. C. SIMPSON, of Salem.

SUBJECT—"The Geneva Conference."

The present attitude of England in relation to the Geneva Arbitration is such that it is not improbable that upon the decision of this tribunal may hinge the question of War between that nation and our own.

When the two high contracting parties met in the persons of their representatives at Washington, a leading American paper exclaimed: "This is civilization!" It yet remains to be seen whether this was premature, or whether these nations by appealing for the third time to the arbitrament of arms, shall give the lie to their boasts of civilization.

The causes which led to, the questions to be submitted to, and the possible results arising from the Geneva Conference, afford as fair a field for the orator as any combination of circumstances ever presented.

Of Mr. Simpson's ability to bring out in strong relief the salient points of this subject it is unnecessary to dwell. Few men possess greater qualifications for the platform. His genius is of a high order, reinforced by a mind disciplined by study and broadened by extensive reading. His style is logical and correct, his imagination vivid, his language chaste, beautiful and abundant. His lectures abound in metaphors so clean but, symmetrical and well-sustained as to furnish

> "Jewels, five words long,
> That on the stretched fore-finger of all time,
> Sparkle forever."

THE POLITICAL WAKE.—The returning delegates from the Dalles Convention and as many more of the "unterrified" as could be got together assembled in front of the Cosmopolitan Hotel and made an attempt to get up some enthusiasm in the ranks of Democracy. But it was no go and we candidly confess that we are unable to tell what kind of a meeting it finally resolved itself into. The first man called out was Nesmith who made not a speech but a harangue in which he told some of his smutty jokes and made a very uncalled for allusion to two people in our city who are not even known as politicians in the usual sense of that term. This allusion was made in Nesmith's classic style but a sense of decency prevents us from giving even the substance of what he said. He then went back about three thousand years and declaimed about the rights of trial by jury. But that kind of talk did not suit the majority of his audience and he soon subsided saying as he left the stand that the audience was a dead drag. Then after much effort Geo. B. Helm the Lion of Linn was brought out who showed at once that he was neither in a good roaring condition. His speech was entirely made up of the abuse of Ben Holladay against whom Mr. Helm holds a personal spite. Mr Helm did not make the least allusion to any political question but did say that he was a better man than Ben Holladay any day. After venting his spleen the Lion quit his howling—they say he lost his roar at the Dalles—and walked sullenly into the adjoining saloon, dropped a dime on the counter, put himself outside of the value thereof in whisky and left the crowd. Two or three men then helped Ben Hayden on the stand and he soon put the very worst kind of a damper on the little funny feeling which Nesmith's jokes had excited, for Ben talked as if it were a voice from the tombs. Like Helm he didn't say anything about politics but unlike Helm he didn't go after Ben Holladay, but he went for Grover in regard to his action vetoing the so called Portland Subsidy Bill and opposing the Lock and Dam Swindle. Ben was evidently out of humor and he surprised us by speaking so [illegible] of his Democratic confreres. He said he had voted for the subsidy bill which Mr Helm had so vehemently denounced and he stood ready to vote the same way again. He said Grover couldn't near be the next U S Senator from Oregon. He, Hayden, would see that that thing wasn't perpetrated, at all hazards. He also said that Polk county was unanimous in favor of the Portland subsidy, but that two of his Democratic colleagues in the Legislature who couldn't read opposed it because they were told it was a Ben Holladay scheme. What this dead issue had to do with the present we couldn't see unless Hayden was trying to show that Helm was wrong. But one thing cropped out all through Hayden's speech, and that was the fact that he is terribly sore over the doings of the late Convention. After Hayden, the few who remained on the ground called for Bellinger, then John Henry Smith, Burmester, R. J. Ladd and J. C. Work. All these parties responded but they all seemed to lack the spirit necessary to excite any degree of enthusiasm, and the meeting dispersed. We have seen a good many political meetings in Portland and elsewhere but candidly we never, not even in the days of the rebellion when the party couldn't raise a corporal's guard in this county, see a political gathering so utterly destitute of argument or logic on the part of the speakers or enthusiasm on the part of the people.

ADDITIONAL PRECINCTS.—Following are the boundaries of the three precincts not redistricted in time to be published with those in yesterday's issue:

Washington Precinct—Commencing at the corner of East Park and A streets thence west, to where A street intersects B street thence along the extension of B street, to where the Cornell and Barnes roads fork, thence following the old precinct boundary to the county line thence north on the old boundary line, to a point where the old boundary line starts east to the Wallamet river, thence east, on said old line, to the river thence south, along the river, to a point where the extension of East Park street intersects the Wallamet river, thence south, along East Park street, to the place of beginning.

Oregon Precinct—Commencing at Seventh street, at the south boundary of the city limits thence north, along the center of Seventh street, to the corner of Seventh and Madison streets thence west, along the center of Madison street, to the corner of Thirteenth and Madison streets thence south, along the center of Thirteenth street to the corner of Thirteenth and Montgomery streets thence following the boundary of Oregon Precinct, around to the place of beginning.

Central Precinct—Commencing at the forks of the Barnes and Cornell roads thence east down B street to where B street intersects A street thence down A street, to the corner of A and Seventh streets thence south along the center of Seventh street to the corner of Seventh and Madison thence west along the center of Madison street, to the corner of Madison and Thirteenth streets thence south, along the center of Thirteenth street, to the corner of Thirteenth and Montgomery streets thence following the old boundary line of Central Precinct around to the place of beginning.

INQUEST AND VERDICT.—The inquest in the case of the China woman, named Ay Soey who was alleged to have been poisoned by one Ah Bin on last Sunday evening, was held at the office of Coroner Dryer yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. A number of witnesses were called and examined, Prosecuting Attorney Gibbs conducting the examination. The report of the physicians Drs Ryan and Kinney who had made the post mortem was next submitted to the jury. It read as follows:

We, the undersigned physicians after a careful examination of the body of Ay Soey found as follows: There was considerable congestion of the membranes of the brain, slight congestion of the kidneys, other organs normal, contents of stomach submitted to analysis were found to contain a slight trace of opium.

J C RYAN M D
AUG C KINNEY M D

Several other witnesses were examined and the facts were submitted to the jurors. After a few minutes consultation the following verdict was rendered:

We, the jurors summoned to inquire into the cause of the death of Ay Soey, find from the testimony before us that she came to her death by poison administered by herself under a state of mental excitement superinduced by the importunities and abuses of one Ah Bin. A D Shelby Foreman, W W Doyle, W E Stubbs, H Cooke, T P Sullivan, Wm A Day.

HAD NO LICENSE.—We have just heard of a little circumstance that occurred yesterday across the river in which one of our city expressmen was the loser. It appears that one of the expressmen in this city was hired to haul several trunks across the river by a gentleman who lived somewhere in East Portland. For his work he was paid the sum of two dollars. Before he left the [illegible] side of the river the gentleman told the expressman that he wanted him, the driver, after he had put the trunks out at his house to drive down to a store and haul home a stove and a sack of flour. The driver did as he was requested and drove to one of the stores designated and started to place the desired articles in his wagon. About this time the City Marshal came along and arrested him for attempting to run an express wagon in East Portland without the necessary license. He was taken before the Recorder and fined fourteen dollars for this violation of the city ordinance. As he did not have about his person but twelve dollars he was compelled to borrow two dollars of one of the merchants. We learn that this expressman intends to institute a suit against the city for the recovery of the amount of his fine.

FIAT LUX.—The ordinance introduced at the last meeting of the City Council appropriates the sum of $300 for the purpose of lighting the town clock for one year. This we believe is more than the Gas Company ask and we trust that the child's play which has so long been kept up in regard to this matter will soon cease as there seems now to be a disposition on the part of the city fathers to pass the ordinance making the appropriation.

DESTITUTE FAMILY.—A destitute emigrant family came up yesterday [illegible]. They were reported to Mr J [illegible] of the Young Men's Christian Association who secured them comfortable quarters and [illegible] the husband and father could find employment. The family consisted of five members and came from [illegible].

DISCHARGED.—Ah Bin the Chinaman who was arrested on the charge of poisoning the Chinawoman was examined yesterday in the Police Court and was discharged, the testimony not being sufficient to hold him.

Engine No 2 did the pumping Wednesday night—not No 4 as we stated yesterday

Chicago smoke buds are the latest style of artificial flowers. None in this market yet

Grocery stores are thick as fleas in August in the southern end of First and Front streets

Charles Kohn, of Jos Kohn & Co, clothiers, has returned to the city from San Francisco

Rev C M Blake the anti Grant and "personal grievance" man is now illuminating the city

Mr Felix Brunot, who was here last year visiting the Indians, has been lecturing in Pennsylvania

The great Nillson is to leave for foreign shores and our people have not heard her sweet voice

Mr Holladay is having an extensive addition made to his handsome residence, corner of Third and Stark streets

Wanted—Less burglars less rain drier streets, and a good, substantial iron fence around the Court House block

By following up the customs of leap year several young ladies are collecting an extensive wardrobe of silk dresses

The "devil's fiddle" has reached Salem and the boys are daily putting nervous persons to torture by its diabolical music

Some shivering wretch stole two sheets from off a clothes line the other night. Moral—a bad place for sheets on windy nights

Pile-driving on the proposed wharf down the river where it is intended to move the O & C R. R. mill has about been completed

These "warm April showers" which city people vote a nuisance are the glory of our farmers. Glad to hear that they are of some service

The 'Possums have adjourned. They all came back footsore and tired and some of them have "sore backs." Band don't play any more

The drowsy ear of night was tortured severely last evening by the discordant howlings of the "possums" in front of the Cosmopolitan Hotel

Ladies are taking particular pains to close shutters, lock doors and nail down window sashes, these nights. How these night prowlers develop one's caution?

A friend at our elbow is desirous of witnessing the production of "Pocahontas" and thinks Manager Waldron's company capable of performing the burlesque

The "Possum Brigade" having concluded its labors at the Dalles, returned to this city by the boat last evening. The people of that burg no doubt feel greatly relieved

"Geneva Conference" is the subject of Prof S C Simpson's lecture to be delivered on next Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association

All will remember the benefit of Columbian Hose Company at the Theater to night. The public is expected to "come down" handsomely and give the boys a crowded house

Delegates returning from the Dalles reached here last evening. If the police did their duty last night, there will be a goodly number of d d s before Judge Denny this morning

Sharp pointed ladies shoes are on exhibition now in this city. Husbands of refractory spouses must exercise caution. A dangerous weapon to any lady who may desire to kick in the traces

The newest style of coffee pot has a little steam whistle attached which warn the folks when our coffee is ready. Those persons who hop out late and have to whistle for their matutinal coffee will find this a good thing

John Wilson styled the prince of circus managers is now East in search of talent. He intends to engage the latest equestrian novelties for the New York Circus which will visit this State during the tenting season

Delinquents will find it to their pecuniary advantage to call on Sheriff James and attend in person to "falling dews." The list is now open at his office. Thirty days notice and then he will prepare to swing the hammer over real estate

"My brethren let us bray" was the concluding sentence of one of the pious "possums" at the meeting of the sore-backs last night. Dirty Beer moved to amend the motion and insert "Let us take a drink." That motion carried

EAST PORTLAND MATTERS

[From the Era]

The bridge on Fourth street some time ago declared unsafe and on which workmen have been engaged for the last few days is now in repair and open to travel

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Thursday Evening, April 11, 1872.

Gold in New York, 110¼.

Greenbacks, 90½c buying and 91¼c selling.

Wheat in Liverpool is unchanged. Quotations, 11s 8d @11s 9d per cental.

On the [illegible] the bids for government gold in New York amounted to [illegible] at from [illegible] to 111.22. One million was sold at the latter figure.

The steamer [illegible] for San Francisco [illegible] tons of assorted cargo.

The steamer [illegible] sailed for San Francisco yesterday. She took the following [illegible] has apples 1,542 sks wheat [illegible] eggs, and 2500 tons.

Brig [illegible] sailed from San Francisco for this port to-day with an assorted cargo.

The schooner Augusta, now due here from Tillamook, will be laid on for Puget Sound.

The Ella Bond will be ready to receive cargo on Monday next.

About the 5th March the bark Alden Besse, from Portland to Hongkong, touched at Honolulu, sold 750 bbls Flour from her cargo at $10 50, took on additional freight and passengers and proceeded on her way.

Under the caption, "Oregon Looming Up," the San Francisco Rural Press has the following remarks: "No longer that out of the way place on the face of the globe, Oregon, from the indomitable energy of her people and the grand system of railroads now being inaugurated and rapidly pushed from point to point in her wide domain, is, as a State, assuming an importance that cannot but attract the attention if not the envy of some of her older sister States. Her cities and towns have awakened to renewed life and activity, her population is rapidly increasing, and other evidences of a progressive and prosperous future, from this day onward are apparent on every hand. A similar spirit of enterprise, with like results, seems also to have seized upon the people of Washington Territory, where new and vast improvements are already in progress, that will have no relapse till a developed country and a mighty people be found where, and of which, but a few years since we knew but little more of, than of the great Northwest."

Of business and commercial prospects in California the San Francisco Bulletin of the 5th inst. says:

The heavy rains of last December gave assurance of an abundant supply of moisture, thus ensuring good crops and [illegible] bullion yield, which had the effect of making everybody feel cheerful and stimulating business [illegible]. The continued rains of January and February [illegible] the promises created earlier in the season, and the subsequent dry and warm weather has further [illegible] the most sanguine expectation. At no corresponding date in any previous year have the prospects been of a more flattering character than they are to-day, notwithstanding the drawback arising from the agitation of the railroad terminus question and the recent earthquake disaster in the southeastern border of the State.

Following are statistics of Importations of Rice and [illegible] with San Francisco during the past three months of the present year, as compared with the corresponding [illegible] of 1871:

Produce Market.

WHEAT—There is no movement in the market. The [illegible] of the market in San Francisco will probably cause further decline here. Such decline may, in fact, be expected. Good Wheat, sacked and delivered, is not worth more than $1 55 ℔ cental here.

FLOUR—Market depressed, with signs of further decline. We still, however, quote extra standard brands at $6; choice country do, $5 40@5 75; superfine and [illegible].

OATS—[illegible] weaker. Demand light. Quotable at [illegible] $2 15 ℔ cental, or 70c ℔ bushel.

HAY—Prices lower. Dealers are paying $20@22 50 ℔ ton for baled Timothy.

EGGS—Arrivals are somewhat less free. We note a rise in our quotations. Quotations to-day, 25c ℔ dozen.

POTATOES—The market is fully stocked with Potatoes from California, as well as with considerable lots of Oregon which have been held back for higher prices. We [illegible] at 60@75c ℔ bushel.

BACON—Arrivals of Eastern are becoming pretty free. We quote Western and Oregon at 15c for Clear Sides; 16c [illegible], and 18c for Hams of extra quality.

LARD—Some lots of Eastern are offered, which we [illegible] at 15@16c ℔ lb.

APPLES—Good are [illegible], and will command $1½@$1 75 ℔ box.

WOOL—We have nothing new to report. Buyers [illegible] the State are, as we learn, offering farmers from 50 to 52½c ℔ lb.

HIDES—Dry, 13c ℔ lb; green, 10c.

RAILROAD LANDS.

OFFICE OF LAND DEPARTMENT,

Oregon and California R. R. Co. and European and Oregon Land Co.,

PORTLAND, OREGON, August 1, 1871.

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND the pre-emption privilege of purchasing Railroad Lands in advance of the same being placed in market to all parties desirous of securing them on the following terms.

The applicant filing in this office a claim in the form prescribed, to-wit:

Pre-emption, date, No. ——.

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company:

SIR: You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved (description of land) in the county of —— State of Oregon, containing —— acres, and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said lands at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1871, to the terms of which I hereby fully assent:

"Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are opened for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchasing on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment, as all other lands belonging to the Company, when brought into market; provided, such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement, and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice, or otherwise, as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person."

(Postoffice address.)

When the application is received, a certificate, signed by the Agent, obligating the Company to the terms, will be sent to the claimant in the following form:

PRE-EMPTION CERTIFICATE, No. ——.

This is to certify that ——, of —— county, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office a pre-emption claim to (description of premises), and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company's valuation, (which is to be made without reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market, in accordance with [illegible] of the Board of Directors of said Company, adopted May 26, A. D. 1871.

When the price of the above described land is fixed, notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued, and if the land is not purchased by the said party as the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT PORTLAND, MARCH 20, 1872.

The Union Republican party of Oregon in Convention, makes this declaration of its principles and policies:

1\. To the Constitution of the United States and all its amendments we pledge our unfaltering allegiance, to its authority a willing obedience, to its full and legal construction and enforcement our constant support.

2\. That the success of the present National Administration in reducing the public debt, diminishing and equalizing taxation, administering every branch of public affairs with economy and efficiency, fostering and improving the civil service, enforcing the laws without fear or favor, protecting the nation's wards with paternal care against the cruel avarice of speculation and fraud, and maintaining friendly relations with Foreign Powers, has been such as to command the approbation of the great majority of the American people, and justly entitle it to the confidence and commendation of every true Republican.

3\. We regard the payment of our national debt, in full compliance with all legal obligations to all our creditors everywhere, and in accordance with the true letter and spirit of its contracting, as no longer a question in issue, but that we may be clearly understood, we denounce all forms and degrees of repudiation of that debt, as affirmed by the Democratic party and its sympathizers, as not only national calamities, but positive crimes, and we will never consent to a suspicion of lack of honor or justice in its complete satisfaction.

4\. We admit of no distinctions between citizens, whether of native or foreign birth; and therefore we favor the granting of full amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion; and we here pledge the full and effective protection of our civil laws to all persons voluntarily coming to or residing in our land.

5\. We favor the encouragement of railroads by the General Government of the United States, and hold that such disposition should be made of the public lands as shall secure the same to actual settlers only, in quantities not exceeding 160 acres.

6\. That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the General Government, by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such adjustment of those duties on imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interest of the whole country, and we recommend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working men liberal wages, to agriculture remunerative prices, to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the Nation commercial prosperity and independence.

7\. We believe that popular education is the sure true basis and hope of a free government, and shall ever oppose any diversion of, or interference with the common school funds or lands in this State, for any other than their legitimate purpose, and we condemn the act of favoritism by the last Legislature whereby two hundred thousand dollars, taken from the school fund, were granted to a corporation consisting mainly of Democratic leaders and party favorites, for the construction of a work which another corporation, entirely sound and responsible, offered to construct for seventy five thousand dollars less, and that we are in favor of the passage by the Legislature of an efficient school law, such as shall secure to all citizens of our State a good common school education.

8\. We find no terms sufficiently strong to express our disapproval of those acts of the last Legislature whereby the swamp lands belonging to this State have been taken from the needy settlers, and given without limit or proper competition in price to the land grabber and speculator, whereby the emoluments and salaries of State officers have been unconstitutionally increased and the taxes increased thousands of dollars by the creation of new and unnecessary offices and salaries, for the purpose of providing for party favorites; and whereby the citizens of our metropolis have been deprived of and denied the right of controlling their police authority. And we equally condemn the administration of our State officers and laws as extravagant, reckless, illegal and destructive, and we rightfully charge all those results as the acts of the Democratic party.

9\. We are in favor of the United States giving to each honorably discharged soldier who served in the armies of the United States to put down the rebellion a warrant for a homestead of 160 acres of public lands.

10\. That we demand the repeal of the so called Ritgant act, which was devised to support pauper Democratic newspapers at the public expense.

11\. That the Republican party of this State are in favor of the General Government extending aid toward building a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to Salt Lake City, and from Jackson county to Humboldt, and we hereby pledge our party representatives to the support of the same.

12\. That the indiscriminate licensing of persons to sell spirituous liquors without being placed under proper responsibilities for the abuse thereof having been found by experience to promote the growth of crime and pauperism, and thereby to seriously increase the rate of taxation, the Republican party recognizes the right and duty of the law-making power to prevent and limit the evils and abuses of such sale so far as concerns the public good and is consistent with individual liberty, by refusing to license other than law-abiding and responsible persons, who can furnish sufficient sureties for good conduct.

13\. That the Republican party of Oregon is in favor of obtaining assistance from the General Government for the construction of a wagon road from the city of Portland to the Dalles, recognizing this as a most important and necessary improvement for the State.

14\. We affirm that the [illegible] of the Republican party [illegible]

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW [illegible]

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs [illegible] fully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing [illegible] has returned from visiting the principal [illegible] Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out [illegible] the consequence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from [illegible] absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, [illegible] and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene! Let [illegible] guardians, friends, attend to those who are [illegible] any of these horrible life-destroying [illegible] they are cared for and cured before it be too late, [illegible] them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, [illegible] made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases with [illegible] cury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians [illegible] Europe and other places. Be the aforesaid [illegible] strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness,

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse, solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty, the [illegible] of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific measures, viz: Sallow countenance, [illegible] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, the rustling of leaves and rattling of [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, [illegible] proaching strangers, a dislike to form [illegible] disposition to shun society, loss of [illegible] flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, [illegible] sweats, monomania and frequently [illegible]. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give Five Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of [illegible] of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are under any of these fearful maladies, should not [illegible] sacred responsibility resting upon them and [illegible] obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give the patient a written instrument, binding [illegible] radical and permanent cure, or make no [illegible].

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions [illegible] by inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in [illegible] letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders [illegible] certificates [illegible] some of the [illegible] doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco [illegible] tradesmen and became [illegible] at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers [illegible] office keepers, [illegible] San Francisco Directory and you will [illegible] will find [illegible] the Directory [illegible] may save [illegible] advertising physicians in trusting [illegible] they are [illegible] by exhibiting forged [illegible] patients' letters, etc. [illegible]

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearny street, near Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

[illegible] will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
